Obligations of Membership

Members of the ICCFA recognize that we have special obligations to the families and public we serve. As Guardians of a Nation's Heritage, we pledge:

- to care for the remains of those entrusted to us with dignity, respect, and professional skill, whether at a funeral home, crematory or cemetery.
- to honor the wishes of the deceased and their family and to serve all families with respect, understanding and confidentiality.
- to administer and safeguard all advance planning and permanent memorialization funds for their lawful and intended purpose.
- to protect and preserve all interment sites and relevant historical data entrusted to us.
- to be guided by the spirit and letter of all applicable laws and regulations set by governing bodies with jurisdiction over our activities in the ownership, management and operation of a funeral home, crematory, cemetery or related endeavor.

OUR MISSION:

Providing exceptional education, networking and legislative guidance and support to progressive cemetery, funeral and cremation professionals worldwide.
