

Dust in the Wind: Five Key Questions Every Scattering Family Needs to Answer

Stacie Schubert, MDiv.

Meet the Smiths

Remember our time at XYZ... we always loved that place.

Just scatter me there.

WHO needs to attend?

Objective 1: To educate the family on the risks of scattering; the reality of this choice; and share with them all the possibilities in regards to placement.

WHAT will be said?

Objective 2: If they do scatter, to help make it the best scattering possible.

WHEN?

WHERE?

HOW?

WHO needs to attend?

Our usher group at church will miss him greatly.

The office won't be the same without her.

We golfed together for 18 years.

She was my favorite aunt!

WHAT will be said?

“In accordance to what ... we think ... your dying wishes ... might have been – “

“What’s with Vietnam?
What does Vietnam have to do with anything??”

WHEN will you scatter?

WHERE will you scatter?

WHEN and WHERE → Lead Management

ORACLE

CRM ON DEMAND

HOW will you scatter?

The Elements

bring a tool with you to open the bag

the consistency of the ashes

Identification Disk

Educate the Family: BOTH/AND

per·ma·nent

/ˈpɜrməˌnənt/

adjective

1. lasting or intended to last or remain unchanged indefinitely.

"a permanent office building" "a permanent wave" "a sea"

synonyms: lasting, enduring, indefinite, continuing, perpetual, everlasting, eternal, abiding, constant, persistent, irreparable, irreversible, lifelong, indissoluble, indelible, standing, perennial, unending, endless, never-ending, immutable, unchangeable, unalterable, invariable, unchanging, changeless, undying, imperishable, indestructible, iradicable; More

“The beautiful thing about cremation is that we don’t have to do 100% of anything with the cremated remains. In fact, we could both scatter and place a portion so that there will always be a place to return when you need it.”

tem·po·rar·y

/ˈtempəˌrerē/

adjective

1. lasting for only a limited period of time; not permanent.

"a temporary job"

synonyms: nonpermanent, short-term, interim; More

Stacie Schubert

Service Corporation International 303-445-4151

Stacie.Schubert@dignitymemorial.com