MAGAZINE DISPLAY ADS

“Memento mori” is a Latin phrase that translates to “remember you must die.” It is a reminder to live each day fully and to understand the importance of our impact on the lives of others. This name reflects the ICCFA membership and the meaningful work accomplished in the deathcare profession. It is for this reason that in 2020, the official ICCFA magazine became Memento Mori. While the name has changed, the exceptional articles and content have not. Advertising in Memento Mori is an effective way to put your company in front of all segments of the deathcare profession.

Display ads are available in a variety of size options:

- Full page
- 1/2 page
- 1/4 page
- 2/3 page
- 1/3 page
- 1/6 page

BUSINESS CARD ADS

These ads may be small but they have a big impact! For the price-conscious advertiser, this option is an incredible way to connect with our audience. A business card-size ad can be used to buy, sell, hire or promote your business in Memento Mori at a reasonable price.

- Charge for business card-size (3.5" wide x 2" high) ad: $300
- All ads must be paid for in advance – payment should accompany order.
- All ads must be received one month prior to date of publication. Ads must be typewritten for clarity and accuracy.

EVENT SPONSORSHIPS

ICCFA YEARLY SPONSORSHIPS

Sponsorships provide an opportunity to not only support the ICCFA's educational events, but to also get your organization in front of hundreds of the most progressive deathcare professionals. Each one of our educational conferences targets a different audience and offers different opportunities.

The ICCFA is proud to offer yearly sponsorship packages for any organization's budget. These packages were designed to provide you with maximum year-long exposure at all of ICCFA's events (DEAD Talks sales conference, ICCFA Experience, ICCFA Universality, and ICCFA Leadership Summit). These packages will allow you to select the best option to meet your organization's goals. The ICCFA relies on your support of events to help the next generation of funeral professionals. Your sponsorship allows the ICCFA to defray costs and maintain these events at an affordable level to provide attendees with the educational and networking opportunities they need to grow within the profession.

As an ICCFA sponsor, you'll receive recognition through printed pre-show materials, emails, the ICCFA website, the on-site program, on-site signage and verbal recognition from the stage. Following the event, you will receive an ROI report detailing where and how your company sponsorship was recognized.

Target Audiences: Sales managers & counselors; ICCFA members (most with final purchasing authority); CEOs and upper level management

Sample Sponsorship Opportunities: Keynote speakers, networking events, audio/visual support, receptions, coffee breaks, lunches, educational tracks, general session staging support.
