

Pet Loss Professionals Alliance

Raising the Standard of Pet Loss Care

What is the PLPA?

The Pet Loss Professionals Alliance (PLPA), a professional group under the International Cemetery, Cremation & Funeral Association (ICCF), is dedicated to advancing excellence in pet loss care.

The PLPA is a professional community of pet-loss service providers, suppliers, and facility operators who are focused on raising the standards and education in pet loss care.

As an educational resource, the PLPA is committed to serving families who have lost their pets with dignity, respect, and compassion.

PET LOSS PROFESSIONALS ALLIANCE

Who Should Join?

- Pet crematories
- Pet funeral homes
- Veterinary partners
- Cemetery providers
- Grief Support Specialists
- Bereavement Counselors
- Suppliers

A national network dedicated to education, ethics, and excellence in pet loss care.

Why Join the PLPA?

Professional Credibility

Align with the PLPA to demonstrate ethical and respectful care in pet loss services

Specialized Education

Access to an in-person expanded short course, online webinars, and workshops in pet loss and integration

Industry Networking

Network with other pet loss and death care experts nationwide

Best Practices & Resources

Stay current and compliant with standards, forms, and professional tools to elevate your business offerings

Growth & Visibility

Strengthen your position in your community

How to Join

- Choose your membership type
- Complete your application
- Get started immediately

Elevate Your Pet Loss Services Today

JOIN THE PLPA

iccfa.com/join